

David G. Lang

Vice President

David has first-hand knowledge of the issues and challenges that clients, business owners, and business executives face on a daily basis. As a small business owner with over twenty-two years in high end interior restoration and renovation projects he understands and can add value for successful client outcomes. His well-rounded background in commercial space planning, project management and market knowledge is now focused on Tenant and Buyer representation as well as the evaluation, sale and leasing of office properties.

David is respected by clients as a diligent and thorough advisor achieving desirable goals. A small sample of his clients include: Dise & Company, JobServe USA, Ltd., Weltman, Weinberg, Reis, Arthritis Foundation, Crump Life Insurance, C. W. Courtney, Chicago Title, Food For Thought, Huntington National Bank, Physicians Risk Management Group, Holcomb Educational Services, Northeast Ohio Council on Higher Education and Shaker Investments.

David relocated to Cleveland in 2002 from Rochester, NY where he was Leasing and Property Manager for Wilmorite Inc. There he managed a portfolio of six office properties in the central business district, totaling 2 million square feet. The largest property in the portfolio located in the heart of downtown Rochester, a 1 million square foot office and retail structure known as "Sibley Centre."

David was a founding member of the Preservation Commission in Brighton, NY (5-year term), a legally binding governmental body. He also served on the historic architectural review board for protected structures that were undergoing historic restoration or rehabilitation. David's personal goal was to maintain a pragmatic view on preservation and find functional financial solutions for owners of historic properties.

Current civic involvements include, serving as a Board Member NE Ohio Chapter of the Arthritis Foundation and Executive Committee (2004 – present), chairing the annual Arthritis Walk (2002-2009) and Board Member Beachwood Chamber of Commerce (2006 – present). David holds two degrees, one in Commercial Art and one in Commercial Photography. He lives in Chagrin Falls with his wife and two children.
